

City Council Bio

Council Member Rigoberto A. Ramirez

Rigo Ramirez was born in Compton and raised in Long Beach, California. In 1995 he married his wife Jhovana and bought their first (and current) home in Stanton, where they felt a strong connection to both the residents and the community. They have one son named Nicholas.

Prior to City Council, Rigo served on the Stanton Planning Commission. Currently, Rigo serves on the City of Stanton Development Committee, Orange County Library Advisory Board, and West Orange County Cities Association, and is the chair of the Stanton Business Alliance. He also serves as an alternate for the Stanton Community Foundation, Stanton Collaborative and the Santa Ana River Flood Protection Agency. He is also an active member of the Blessed Sacrament School Consultative Board and the Orange County Youth Motivation Task Force.

Rigo currently holds the title of Client Relations for a retirement services firm that he has been with since 1991. He is responsible for eleven representatives that provide retirement services to clients across 8 states. In 1990 he earned his Bachelor of Business Administration from Loyola Marymount University. In his spare time Rigo enjoys volunteering for non-profit events and attending as many high school sporting events as possible.
