ANNETTE COX

BIOGRAPHY

Ms. Cox was born and raised in Bakersfield, California. After Ms. Cox graduated from high school she left California to work in South Carolina. She performed a variety of jobs until she decided to pursue a career with the United States Army. This was a dream of hers as a child, especially since her grandfather and cousin served in the Army as a WWII First Lieutenant and Korean War E3 Soldier.

In 1983, Ms. Cox's dream came true as she enlisted into the United States Army. She was stationed at Fort Jackson, South Carolina for boot camp. Upon completion she received permanent party orders and was sent to Fort Bliss, Texas. During that time she was part of the HERC Air Defense Team. This team provided protection during missile drills and test flights.

Ms. Cox retired from the United States Army in 1988 and since that time she resides in Stanton and calls the City of Stanton home.
