

City Council Bio

Council Member Alexander A. Ethans

Al Ethans has lived at the same house in Stanton since 1980. He has been married to his wife, Mavis for 35 years and they have four children and seven grandchildren.

Al Ethans was on the Planning Commission for one and a half years before being elected to the City Council in 1996.

Al Ethans is currently serving on these committees: Transportation Growth Management Area Group No. 2, Orange County Vector Control District, The Santa Ana River Flood Protection Agency, Orange County Emergency Management Organization and the Association of California Cities, Orange County.

Al Ethans worked in Aerospace Engineering Management for 25 years and also served in the U.S. Armed Forces (Navy and Air Force) for eight years, and is a Veteran of the Korean War. He graduated from the University of Detroit.

Al Ethans is a former Boy Scout leader both in Stanton and in Missouri. He is also very active in his church, City Council and the Stanton Chamber of Commerce.

Al Ethans is currently on the on the Board of Directors for the Boys and Girls Club and has been on the board for the past 14 years, he has also been on the Board of Directors for the Youth Motivation Task Force for the past 21 years. In addition he volunteers with the Orange County Children's Theatre and a long time member of the Stanton Lions Club.